

Magnífica Tradicional is a Cachaça produced from the freshly pressed sugar cane cultivated and harvested in the highlands of Rio de Janeiro. The sugar cane is harvested manually and pressed within hours to retain the wonderful aroma.

Local natural yeast cultures are added for the fermentation and subsequently a single pot still distillation is performed to produce a wonderfully fresh, fruity cachaça adhering to "Artesanal" (handmade) production techniques.

Magnífica Tradicional ages for two years in large Ipê casks. During the aging process, it develops a high degree of smoothness and a subtle aroma of tropical wood. Additionally, the intense aroma offers notes of banana, raspberry and spices. Magnífica Tradicional is the best-selling "Cachaça Artesanal" in Rio de Janeiro and makes a perfect basis for delicious Caipirinhas, Batidas or any other cachaça drink.
