

MATTEI

The brand Mattei, founded by Louis Napoléon Mattei, born in the Cap Corse region, has been in existence since 1872. Cap Corse is located in the northern part of Corsica and is renowned for the cultivation of exceptionally high-quality grapes. Thanks to the pronounced business acumen and innovative ideas of Louis Napoléon Mattei and the subsequent efforts of his nephew François Mattei, the name Louis Napoléon Mattei, his brand, and his products continue to thrive and be successfully sold even 100 years after his passing.

Mattei Distilled Dry Gin is the result of the distillation of a carefully selected range of citrus fruits and botanicals inspired by the aromatic richness of the Corsican maquis. Mattei Dry Gin entices the nose with the scent of juniper and subtle herbal notes, with bay laurel at the forefront. In terms of taste, it impresses with notes of citrus fruits and Corsican citron.

Its delightful freshness and unique flavor are excellently balanced, providing a smooth and light finish.
