

CIHUATÁN

• RON DE EL SALVADOR •

In 2004, Licorera Cihuatán, originally a leading sugarcane producer in El Salvador, established the first and only rum of the Central American country. Driven by the goal of authentically conveying the character of its origin to the world, Cihuatán Ron de El Salvador is now a true flagship of its homeland.

The name “Cinabrio” was inspired by the red color of the mineral cinnabar, which plays an important role in Mayan mythology. Cihuatán Rum Cinabrio matures for a minimum of 12 years in former American white oak bourbon barrels, which imparts an impressive range of flavors. Cinabrio not only impresses with its creaminess but also features delightful notes of plum, pistachio, caramelized orange peel, and oakwood. Hints of ripe starfruit and gentle toasty aromas join in to complete the fruity and multi-layered profile.

Cihuatán Cinabrio is well-suited for sipping neat or for crafting the finest Rum Old Fashioneds.
