

ALUNA

· COCONUT ·

Aluna Coconut is a rum-based spirit with natural coconut flavor and a pleasant subtle sweetness.

Aluna Coconut offers an authentic and mild taste experience with its natural ingredients and intricate, innovative production process. Gently roasted coconuts are macerated and blended with a Guatemalan rum and two Caribbean rums.

Lowering the blend's alcohol content with coconut water to 37.5% ABV enhances the coconut notes significantly. A brief aging period in oak barrels imparts Aluna with its subtle vanilla aroma and provides the final touch.

Aluna is the perfect spirit for those seeking a rum with the full power of coconut.
