

MATTEI

Cap Mattei is the popular aperitif from northern Corsica. The brand of bittersweet fortified wines has existed since 1872 and has been conquering the international stage since its relaunch in 2017.

The Cap Corse Blanc variety is based on Muscat and Vermutino wines, refined with cinchona bark ("quinquina"), citrus fruits, and other botanicals. The result is a sweet fortified wine with a subtly bitter note. It is perfect for enjoying chilled, over ice, or as a base for light and refreshing Spritz-style drinks.
