

Since 2014, Chinola has been cultivating a specially developed passion fruit on its own farm in Samaná to achieve the perfect flavor profile. The brand is not only award-winning but also dedicated to supporting the local community by creating jobs and offering training programs. Sustainability plays a central role, with organic and resource-conscious farming practices.

Chinola Mango Liqueur is crafted using 100% fresh mangoes, a hint of passion fruit, a distillate from fresh sugarcane, and a small amount of aged rum. No artificial additives or flavors are used in the production process. A blend of Keitt, Kent, and Banilejo mangoes provides a balanced sweetness and acidity. The liqueur stands out with natural mango and citrus notes, a creamy mouthfeel, and a semi-dry finish with cocoa nuances. It is perfect for drinks like Whiskey Sours or Mango Daiquiris.
